REP. ROGERS TOURS RELIABLE RESPIRATORY

Lauds Medical Equipment Supplier's Success Despite the Economy

STATE REPRESENTATIVE JOHN H. ROGERS (D-Norwood) recently toured the offices of Reliable Respiratory in Norwood, a growing home respiratory equipment and services provider serving all of New England. Despite the economy Reliable Respiratory has experienced steady growth and has added a dozen jobs in the past year. The company distributes CPAP devices for people with sleep disordered breathing, nebulizers to help those with asthma, oxygen concentrators and oxygen for people with lung disease, and quick diagnosis flu and strep kits.

Shown with Rep. Rogers (center) are company Chief Operating Officer

Bob McTighe of Wellesley, and Finance Administrator Anna Lavoie of Walpole. Rogers has served in the House since 1993 and is a former Majority Leader. He serves on three key Joint Committees: Education; Veterans and Federal Affairs; and Labor and Workforce Development.
